

"Chemical collections and historical laboratories"
Public event in the frame of the 8th European Chemistry Congress

Sunday August 28, 2022

Laboratório e Amfiteatro de Chimico da Escola Politécnica,
Museu Nacional de História Natural e da Ciência (Museum of Natural History and Science)

<https://www.museus.ulisboa.pt/en/amphitheater-and-chemical-laboratory>

PROGRAM

14.00 - Judite Alves, deputy director (Museum of Natural History and Science) – Welcome

14.05 - Brigitte Van Tiggelen (Science History Institute)

EuChemS Historical Landmarks: chemists and their past

Collections of chemical instruments and artefacts

14.15 - Sladjana Slavic (University of Belgrade)

The chemical collection of the University of Belgrade

14.25 - Isabel Malaquias (University of Aveiro)

Collections of didactic instruments from Portuguese secondary schools

14.35 – Duccio Tatini and Pierandrea Lo Nostro (University of Florence/Substantia)

Ugo Schiff collection at the University of Florence and an Italian initiative for chemical collections

14.45 - Discussion

Historical laboratories and sites of chemistry

14.55 - Gilberto Pereira (Science Museum of the University of Coimbra)

The historical laboratory of Coimbra: 250 years of History

15.05 - Yoshiyuki Kikuchi (Aichi Prefectural University)

Historical Chemical Theaters and Laboratories in Aichi and Kumamoto Prefectures, Japan

15.15- Marisa Monteiro (Natural History and Science Museum of the University of Porto)

An historical chemistry laboratory at the University of Porto

15.25 - Discussion

Visit

15.35 - Maria do Carmo Elvas (Museum of Natural History and Science)

Laboratório e Amfiteatro Chimico – introduction to the visit

15.45 - Visit and Free time

All ECC8 attendees welcome – register by writing to vantiggelen@memosciences.be

!! During the ECC8 you have free access to the Museum on showing your conference badge!!

How to get there

Rua da Escola Politécnica 56/58, 1250-102 Lisboa

Bus from/to the Congress Center: 727 stops at Largo do Rato (300 m from Museum), 25/30 minutes

Other public transportation connections to the Museum:

- Buses 58 and 773 stop and tramcar route 24 in front of the Museum
- Buses 92 and 790 stop at Príncipe Real (200 m from the Museum)
- Tube: Rato Station (Yellow Line)